Any person wishing to be served for three months after the above date need only pay his quarter's postage, and send us a gold dollar and a silver quarter in a small letter—postage paid, of course; or five dollars for a year. [WASHINGTON, May 27, 1851.

STRIPES AND FLOGGING .- It is consistent in the advocates of one of these stimulants to naval heroism to defend the other also. That the regular dram will ever beget the love of more, and provoke the cats, is certain; and that the man who will ship, subject to the degradation of the cats, will yearn for his grog, is very probable. Let neither be expected, and better men will be secured-if not without better fare and better pay, give them to them. A navy of one thousand men, who do not love grog and would not brook flogging, will prove of more worth than thrice their number of sots and servile dogs. And if the discipline of the navy cannot be preserved by its present officers, under the new order of things, let the old fogies resign: we have men enough to command our vessels who need no such auxiliaries as rum and the cat-o'-nine-tails.

PROFITS OF AGRICULTURE -Small well-tilled farms, from which there is easy access to good markets, are often exceedingly profitable. We have frequently been astonished at the revenue derived from a single kind of fruit or vegetable. A New Jersey paper remarks of the strawberry trade of that State, that on one night of last week 132 wagons fall of the fruit passed over the Hoboken ferry, principally from the vicinity of Hackensack, Paterson, New Durham, and Bergen. One gardener near Bergen is said to have cleared $1,500 this season. A large profit is reported to be derived also from the manufacture of baskets in which the fruit is conveyed to market, although they are sold at the low rate of one cent each! In view of such statements as this, how lamentable it is to look upon the miserable, self-indulgent, lazy beings, white and black, American and foreign, who lounge about our cities amid shiftless dis-

A MISSING LETTER .- A letter was dropped into the Washington city post office some weeks ago, having money in it, and directed to Mt. Israel; but the writer was soon informed that it had not gone to Mt. Israel. He therefore applied to the "depredation bureau" of the Post Office Department, and obtained the aid of Mr. WALLER. This gentleman at once found that no letter had been mailed for Mt. Israel on the day named. It therefore looked like the story was a fiction, or the letter had been abstracted from our city post office. Mr. Wallen bade the parties interested wait a few days. They did so, and he produced the letter. It had been mailed to Mt. Pleasant, and placed in the pigeon-holes at that office without the postmaster's observing that it should have gone to another mountain! The workings of the department are systematic, and the experienced men in its service can discover and correct an error with wonderful precision. It is but just, however, to say that in our city post office they are of rare occurrence.

AN INTERESTING WORK .- The life of Major Lemuel Purnell Montgomery, of the 39th regiment U. S. army, who fell at the battle of the Horseshoe, on the 27th March, 1814, will shortly be published by Baker & Scribner, New York. The work will be written by the Rev. T. H. Headley; and, in addition to the life and exploits of the gallant Major, it will also give a ment of Mr. P. Boteler, G street, near the shipmans and Shermans. His life was general history of the events of the war of 1812, War Department. as well as the principal events in the career of the prominent officers of that war. The life of the prominent officers of that war. The life of Col. Henry Clay, jr., and other officers of the Register.

P. Montgomery,) who is the general agent for the work, called upon us yesterday with the prospectus, and among the subscribers to it we have furnished historical and biographical facts to aid in its compilation.

The pistols used by Major Montgomery during the war have recently been presented by his brother to the National Institution.

We understand that Mr. Varden, Curator at the National Institution, will act as special agent for the work in this city.

THE PRESIDENT'S RETURN! - Captain Mc-Causland, of the steamboat Mt. Vernon, offers inducements to any of our citizens desiring an excursion on the Potomac, such as are rarely presented. We doubt not many, especially of the personal friends of the President of the United States, will avail themselves of the advantages of this opportunity.

THE FOURTH OF JULY .- In referring to the proclamation of Major General WALTER JONES, we would take occasion to suggest that a procession of societies and trades would be appropriate to the day and the occasion.

A New BRIDGE is to be constructed over the Tiber, near the intersection of New Jersey avenue and D street, a few feet from the new carhouse of the railroad company. The span is to house of the railroad company. The span is to be one hundred and seventy-two feet. Workmen to estimate, and I am well satisfied from careful have commenced excavating for the foundation. Republic.

CRIMINAL COURT .- The trial of Henry Buete for forgery and attempted fraud was commenced yesterday, and is still in progress. At one e'clock to-day the testimony for the United States was closed.

THE INTERNATIONAL .- Taylor & Maury, the agents for this city, have presented to us the July number of this instructive and entertaining monthly. The contents are rich and varied, and the Xylographic pictures beautiful.

The Illinois Episcopal Convention met lately at Quincy. Bishop Chase was prevented from being present by illness, and the Rev. Charles SANDFORD'S NEW ORLEANS OPERA TROUPE!t is a little remarkable that every concert given by this troupe in Washington was attended by an overflowing audience until they offered a benefit to the National Monument Association, when their hearers were sparse, and their net receipts but twenty-nine dollars and a levy. This is comical, but true! Let us see what can be done on Monday evening for the benefit of our two Orphan Asylums. Something far better than this, we are sure. Our people must have forgot themselves last evening.

To-night and to-morrow night our Georgetown riends will enjoy the exquisite music of this SAD AFFLICTION .- The late news from California falls heavily upon the Harrisburg community. Of the deaths at the great conflagration in the city of San Francisco, in May last, they lost two. MAXWELL NUSBAUM, of the firm of Nusbaum & Brothers, a merchant of excellent standing, and a clerk by the name of ROSENTHAL in their employ, perished in the noble and praiseworthy effort of endeavoring to preserve the goods and property of the firm of TAFFE & M'CAHILL. The sad intelligence, says the Union, has created wide-spread grief in our midst. Mr. Nusbaum leaves a wife and two very interesting little children to mourn this irreparable loss.

H. ECKARDY & BROTHER are showing the world what close attention, industry, skill and enterprise can do in the CONFECTIONERY LINE. They are not only improving and expanding their facilities at the old stand, corner of 9th and F streets, but have opened a new and splendid concern on the Avenue, between 12th and 13th. Whoever partakes of their cooling luxury pronounces it superlatively good, and hails the Messrs. Eckardt as national benefactors!

FINE SHEEP .- Mr. John W. Moore, of Jeferson county, Va., recently slaughtered a fine lot of sheep. Buck No. 1, 110 days old, 121 lbs. Buck No. 2, 100 days old, 106 lbs. Ewe No. 1, 100 days old, 101 lbs. THE SEA-SERPENT .- The present story is that has not only been seen, but caught, and that Captain Burr pulled its head off in trying to get it aboard, and salted said head for preservation. We shall salt down the tale he has given of it.

JOHN TYLER, ir., has in the Pennsylvanian of Wednesday a very clever and sensible review of the subject of "City Parks and Squares."

Mrs. Collison, 7th above H street, can fit you out beautifully for the great holiday. She has able old gentleman. And since we have been led to speak of Wo men's Rights Conventions, and a new female costume, we will present our readers with the Apostle Paul's views on these questions. Paul as a real reformer, and labored zealously in notice the names of many of our eminent states-men and officers in the army, some of whom hibiting themselves, perhaps more extensively, in the present day. In his first epistle, or letter to Timothy, he instructs him what he shall teach, and how he shall govern as a minister or bishop in the gospel church; and among other instructions he gives the following:

"In like manner, also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefaced-ness and sobriety; not with broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

godliness) with good works. "Let the woman learn in silence with all sub authority over the man, but to be in silence." This editor is a zealous man in good works, and would for ever prevent any change in the style of ladies' apparel. "But the wicked are not so." We would that he could ask Paul's another chapter on teaching!

ADVERTISING .- Genin, the great hatter, in a note to Col. Webb, editor of the New York Courier, inviting him to test his style of hats, holds the following language:

BLOOMER COSTUME.—Quite a number of young ladies of Stockbridge, Mass., have adopted the deon. Bloomer costume, and are represented to look pretty and becoming in their new attire. Considerable excitement was created on their first appearance in the streets.

SCHOOL EXHIBITION.—The annual exhibition of the pupils of St. Vincent Orphan Asylum was held at the Asylum to-day in the presence of the several pastors of the Roman Catholic churches, and many friends and patrons of this of the spectators. valuable institution. The children acquitted themselves very creditably. Their specimens of needle-work, writing, &c., were much admired. We could not avoid remarking the genteel appearance and excellent deportment of these fatherless little girls, who by the unrequited kindness of the good Sisters of Charity, have been rescued from the paths of destruction, and provided with so many com- and street or city mills flour.

SALE OF CITY PROPERTY .- A. Green, aucioneer, (by J. C. Green,) yesterday sold at year. public auction a lot and two-story frame house on Eighth street, between G and H. WONDERFUL DESPATCH .- On Tuesday the ews of the Europa's arrival was telegraphed from New York to New Orleans, and an answer received in one hour and three quarters. The hundred miles. It left New York at twenty minutes past two o'clock, and reached New Orleans precisely at two, apparently twenty minutes before it started!

GREAT WILL CASE .- Slaves Liberated .- There has been for some time before the courts at Richmond, Va., what was known as the Ragland will case, and the verdict of the jury, just made, offers a singular commentary upon the repeated declaration that the colored man canot meet with justice in the South. The Rich mond Dispatch says:

"The will liberated 80 or 90 negroes in the midst of one of the largest slaveholding com-munities in the world, and devoted to their use the entire property of the testator. It was contested with all the energy which could be brought to bear upon it. The trial was conducted with the utmost circumspection witnesses were examined and cross-examined the whole testimony was reduced to writing, so that the jury could read it all for themselves, (as we learn that they did a great portion of t;) and then the case was argued with all the ability that able and ingenious counsel were capable of exercising. After all—fully under-standing the merits of the case—a jury com-posed almost entirely of slaveholders—every man of them having strong sympathies, at least with slaveholders—decided in favor of the will.

CAPT. STEPHEN SMITH, a soldier of the Revolution, died in Northford, on the 23d inst., at the advanced age of one hundred years and six weeks. At the close of the one hundredth year of his age, many of his friends met with him ; on which occasion a sermon was preached, and religious services performed, and the day closed by the party partaking supper with the venerwho were then for the last time met together, will be long remembered by those of another generation who were present. Boston, June 26-3 p. m .- The sloop-of-war Portsmouth, Com. Gregory, arrived to-day in thirty-six days from Port Praya. The dysentery prevailed on board during the passage, and two deaths had occurred. The crew are much debilitated by the climate of the African Coast. The Portsmouth left at Port Praya the U. S. ship Germantown, which was to sail for the Coast in a few days. The Dale had sailed for opinion of Aquila and Priscilla, and give us the Island of Java on the 6th of May to demand satisfaction from the natives for an outrage per-petrated upon Americans a year ago. The brig Perry was cruising among the Cape de Verde islands. The Portsmouth brought home the first and second mates and seamen of a Hamburg ship, wrecked on the island of Mayo.

HAVANA, June 22.-Exchanges are lower. Freights high. Vessels for Europe scarce. A arge proportion of the crop is unshipped. A business is doing in sugar, and prices are maintained at the previous decline. A further reduction was however anticipated. Celebration of the Fourth of July. Militia of the District of Columbia .- General Order.

Washington, June 26, 1851.
The Major General of the District Militia, in compli ance with intimations from authority to which his un-qualified respect, both official and personal, is due, desires all the citizen-soldiers within the limits of his command to take notice that the ceremony of laying the corner stone of the edifice to be erected in the Capitol square for the reception of Congress is appointed for the next ensuing Fourth of July, and that they are expected to turn out in full force, to take their due share in the solemn ies of the day, in which the President of the United States and the Heads of the Executive Departments are ngaged to take a prominent part.

He is also requested to extend this notice, by way of nvitation, to all such of the citizen-soldiers of the Militis beyond the limits of this District as may be in a condition to come in, and to heighten the grandeur and dignity of the celebration; which, so far from being of any merely local interest, goes deep into the hearts and interests of Existing circumstances in public affairs make it highly expedient that this celebration should take a truly ns. tional type and character. Now is the time, and this the steadfast avoucher of the Union. The National Will calls into existence an edifice dedica-

ed to the high functions of national legislation, under the national flag of the Union, and for future generations in uncounted succession; and, without art, sets up a ma-terial symbol and renews the solemn pledge of the un-flinching will, the fixed purpose, and the inviolable faith of the nation to maintain and defend the Union, now and lence can have no more fitting associate than the solem nity by which this new symbol and pledge of Union is to be signalized—of a Union itself the chiefest glory and reward of the wisdom and constancy by which national in icpendence was achieved.

In addition to the interest impressed on this double elebration by the moral associations betokened in its outward ceremonials, there will be heard counsels and exhortations of profound wisdom and sage experience embellished by a rare genius, resounding from the elo quent lips of WEBSTER to every patriotic heart and mind The troops, both those of the District division and those from other parts of the Union, are requested to rendez yous in front of the City Hall, at 10 o'clock in the morn ing of the fourth, and there report to the Major Genera of the District Militia, or such other officer as he may by that time have designated, the strength and quality of their several corps. The place of each corps in the military part of the procession will be then arranged.
